

PCMF Orientation Guide

Presbyterian Church of East Africa (PCEA)
Presbyterian Church Men's Fellowship (PCMF)

1. Welcome Message

It could read: We are glad you have shown interest in joining the Presbyterian Church Men's Fellowship (PCMF). This orientation guide is designed to help you understand what PCMF stands for and what is expected of you as you begin your journey of fellowship and service.

2. PCMF Mission and Vision

Mission:

To bring men to Christ and nurture them to become spiritually mature, responsible leaders in the church, family, and society.

Vision:

To build a fellowship of Christian men who are faithful, disciplined, and committed to transforming lives through the Gospel.

3. Objectives of PCMF

- To grow in faith through regular fellowship, Bible study, and prayer.
- To encourage men to live exemplary Christian lives in their homes, churches, and communities.
- To support the mission and development of the church.
- To mentor boys and younger men in the church.
- To strengthen family life through guidance and Christian leadership.

4. Structure and Leadership

PCMF is structured to work in harmony with the PCEA church governance. The fellowship operates at different levels:

- District PCMF
- Parish PCMF
- Presbytery PCMF
- Regional PCMF
- National PCMF

Each level has a leadership team consisting of:

- Chairperson
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Organizing Secretary
- Patron (Elder)

5. Membership Process

Stage	Description
Admission	Entry into the fellowship through registration and orientation.
Dedication	Spiritual commitment to PCMF after regular attendance and preliminary training.
Commissioning	Formal recognition and commissioning by the church after full training. (must be a full member/communicant)

6. Expectations of a PCMF Member

- Attend fellowship meetings regularly.
- Engage in Bible study and spiritual growth.
- Support church and PCMF programs actively.
- Serve in your family, church, and community with integrity.
- Participate in mission and outreach activities.
- Be a role model to boys and young men.
- Wear the PCMF uniform with honor and understanding.

7. Training Before Commissioning

Before commissioning, each member must undergo foundational training covering:

- Understanding PCMF: History, purpose, and roles
- Christian doctrine and values
- Stewardship and service
- Family and community responsibilities
- PCEA structure and constitution
- Evangelism and discipleship

8. Uniform and Identity

Once commissioned, members are expected to have PCMF regalia, including:

- Badge (At Dedication)
- Tie (Commissioning)
- Coat (Commissioning)
- Official White Shirt or Attire

These are symbols of commitment and service, and should be worn with respect, especially during PCMF or church events.
